SUMMARY: As Ebenezer Scrooge wakes up the morning before Christmas, he has no idea he is being watched by an old friend with the help of three ghostly companions. Today will be Scrooge's final test before he gets the visit of his life and finds out the true meaning of Christmas.

A CHRISTMAS CAROL: THE MUSICAL GHOST STORY is a brand new adaptation that adds a dark & modern touch to the well-known story. Dickens' traditional characters, exciting new songs, and some frightful ghosts make this version a fun and surprising retelling of the famous Holiday "Ghost Story!"

THE CAST: We are looking for an ensemble cast of approximately 35 actors:

- ✓ 10 – 15 Men, ages 15 through 75+ (Scrooge, Marley, Bob Cratchit, Fred, Fezziwig, Old Joe, the Undertaker, the School Master, Christmas Present, etc.)
- ✓ 10 – 15 Women, ages 15 through 75+ (Mrs. Cratchit, Mrs. Fezziwig, Belle, Mrs. Dilber, the Charwoman, Martha Cratchit, Christmas Past, Christmas Future, etc.)
- ✓ 6 – 10 Children, ages 5 – 14 (Tiny Tim, Peter, Belinda, Fan, Young Scrooge, etc.)

We are looking for actors of all ages, shapes, and sizes. Racial, ethnic, & non-traditional casting will be considered. With the exception of Scrooge, all actors will play selected roles AND ensemble.

PLEASE PREPARE: A short musical selection, about 1 minute in length, of a MEMORIZED song you love! The song should be in the style of Music Theatre, but can be standard, contemporary, uptempo, or a ballad. Please pick a selection that shows off your voice & your acting. Make sure you love the song, have it memorized, and bring sheet music as it is important for us to hear you sing with the provided accompanist.

A short dance combination will be taught to all applicants and cold readings may be requested.

PLEASE BE PREPARED TO LIST ALL CONFLICTS you have during the months of Sept, Oct, & Nov.

Any additional questions or concerns should be emailed to Director, Joel Mercier, at joel@joelmercier.com
